7. Acknowledgments and Waivers. The Sponsor understands that:

- This Sponsor Agreement is a legal agreement that incorporates a master trust instrument, identified as the Trust. The Sponsor has been advised to seek advice of legal counsel, and, after consultation (or waiver, as the case may be), the Sponsor has read and understands all of the terms and provision of this instrument and of the Trust.
- This Sponsor Agreement and the Trust both are irrevocable. The Sponsor may, during the lifetime of the Designated Beneficiary, add or substitute residual beneficiaries named in Section 5, above. In all other respects, however, the use, distribution, investment, dissolution and/or other control of the property in the Trust Account are solely within the absolute and sole discretion of the Trustee.
- Investments of the Trust Account will be directed primarily toward providing liquidity for support, and not to generate returns.
- Contributions to the Trust Account may have tax consequences which, in the Trustee's discretion, can be satisfied out of the Trust Account, but the Sponsor understands that the Designated Beneficiary, and not the Trustee, remains responsible for any such taxes.
- The Trustee can amend the Trust at any time, with or without notice, but it cannot change the final distribution that is provided in this Sponsor Agreement.

The following is, to the best of the Sponsor's knowledge, a complete list of the states in which the Designated Beneficiary has received Medicaid benefits during lifetime. (Please include years in which the Designated Beneficiary lived in the state, and address(es) during that time).
